

AN ENCOUNTER WITH REFUGEES, BOTH FORMER AND CURRENT

From Friday, May 12 to Sunday, May 14, 2017, on the Place des Arts esplanade, ATSA, When Art Takes Action invites you to Cuisine ta ville, a relational art project designed to better know the refugees, from yesterday and today, who make up Montreal's social fabric.

More info at sur.atsa.qc.ca

CALL TO PARTICIPATION

People with an aptitude for communication and talented people, be a part of our programming!

TESTIMONIALS, SEMINARS, PRESENTATIONS | EXHIBITIONS |
LIVE ART PERFORMANCES | MUSIC | FILMS AND DOCUMENTARIES

The event will take place under a series of Tempo-style tents (i.e., winter car shelters), set up near Sainte-Catherine St. along the Place des Arts esplanade. The programming includes various seminars and workshops; musical, theatrical or dance performances; and exhibitions of works by and about refugees, former and current alike, who make up Montreal's social fabric.

Are you or have you been a refugee, or do you work with refugees? Come speak about your experiences and the realities in the field, or about the various issues surrounding the taking in of refugees and asylum seekers.

Are you an expert on immigration rights, or a historian with an interest in the different waves of migration to Montreal, or a sociologist with a passion for integration and interculturalism? Come teach us what you know.

Are you an artist, in any discipline, and are you currently going through such an experience or have you in the past, and/or does your work broach this topic? Contact us to see how your work might be integrated into our programming.

All performances must be brief and on a small scale. The aim is not to achieve spectacular effects, but rather to promote encounters, in an intimate setting conducive to sharing. All works of art for display must be suitable for hanging in a Tempo-style shelter, in the public space.

Want to be a part of it? Please get in touch with us as soon as possible, and before May 5!
Contact Frédérique Piat Corson at 514-844-9830 or at coordination@atsa.qc.ca.